

THE HONORABLE JOHN C. COUGHENOUR

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, THE MUCKLESHOOT INDIAN TRIBE, and THE PUYALLUP TRIBE OF INDIANS,

Plaintiffs,

v.

POLAR TANKERS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. C10-0429-JCC

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff United States of America's Motion to Enter Consent Decree. (Dkt. No. 7). There has been no response or reply. Having thoroughly considered the parties' briefing and the relevant record, the Court finds oral argument unnecessary and hereby GRANTS the motion.

I. BACKGROUND

A. The Plaintiffs filed a complaint against Defendant Polar Tankers, Inc. ("Defendant"), concurrently with this Consent Decree, alleging that Defendant is liable pursuant to the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 ("OPA"), 33 U.S.C. §§ 2701 et seq., for a discharge of crude oil from the tank vessel POLAR TEXAS, owned by Polar Tankers, Inc., into waterways in or near Dalco Passage, Washington that occurred on or about October 13, 2004 ("Spill"). The oil washed ashore on Vashon and Maury Islands in the Dalco Passage area off Commencement Bay. Defendant Polar Tankers, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of ConocoPhillips, Inc.

1 B. The Complaint seeks natural resource damages under Section 1002 of OPA, 33
2 U.S.C. § 2702, and the Washington State Water Pollution Control Act (RCW 90.48.142), for
3 injury to, destruction of, loss of, or loss of use of, natural resources, including the reasonable
4 costs of assessing the damages, on behalf of the United States, the State of Washington, the 5 Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, and the Puyallup Tribe of Indians.

6 C. The Department of Commerce, National Oceanic and Atmospheric
7 Administration (“NOAA”); Department of the Interior, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
8 (“USFWS”); Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife; Washington State
9 Department of Ecology; the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe; and the Puyallup Tribe of Indians share
10 trusteeship of the injured natural resources and are coordinating restoration efforts.

11 D. The Trustees allege that the Spill caused injuries to various intertidal and 12 subtidal species, including Puget Sound Chinook salmon and other salmonids, Hardshell
13 Clams, Surf Smelt, and Sand Lance, and their habitats, as well as birds and other wildlife. The 14 Spill resulted in oiling and temporary closures of beaches on Vashon and Maury Islands. The 15 Trustees have determined that the settlement contained in this consent decree will compensate
16 the public for damages to natural resources.

17 E. In October 2006, Defendant paid a total of $2,313,293.94 to the United States to 18 reimburse removal costs and to satisfy claims for civil penalties pursuant to Section 311(b)(6)
19 of the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. § 1321(b)(6), as amended by OPA, 33 U.S.C. §§ 2701 et
20 seq. In October 2006, Defendant also paid a total of $540,000 to the State of Washington
21 (Washington Department of Ecology) to reimburse removal costs and to satisfy claims for civil
22 penalties pursuant to Washington State Water Pollution Control Act, Chapters 90.56 and 90.48
23 RCW.

24 F. The Parties agree and the Court finds that settlement of this matter without 25 further litigation is in the public interest and that the entry of this Consent Decree is the most 26 appropriate means of resolving this matter.

G. The Parties agree, and the Court by entering this Consent Decree finds, that this Consent Decree has been negotiated by the Parties in good faith and will avoid prolonged and complicated litigation between the Parties. The proposed consent judgment represents a resolution that is fair, reasonable and equitable and does not violate the law or public policy. Sierra Club, Inc. v. Electronic Controls Design, Inc., 909 F.2d 1350, 1355 (9th Cir. 1990).

H. Defendant does not admit any liability arising out of the transactions or occurrences alleged in this action and does not admit the allegations contained in the complaint or in this Consent Decree.

NOW, THEREFORE, before the taking of any testimony, without the adjudication or admission of any issue of fact or law except as provided in Section I, and with the consent of the Parties, IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED, ORDERED, AND DECREED as follows:

II. JURISDICTION, VENUE, AND NOTICE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the claims in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1345, and 1367(a). Venue lies in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c), because the Spill alleged in the Complaint occurred in, and Defendant conducts business in, this judicial district. For purposes of this Consent Decree, or any action to enforce this Consent Decree, Defendant consents to the Court's jurisdiction and venue in this judicial district.

III. APPLICABILITY

2. The obligations of this Consent Decree apply to and are binding upon the Plaintiffs and upon Defendant, and its parent companies and affiliates, including but not limited to ConocoPhillips Company, and its successors or assigns. Any change in ownership or corporate status of the Defendant including, but not limited to, any transfer of assets or real or personal property, shall in no way alter such Defendant's or its successors' and assigns' rights or responsibilities under this Consent Decree.
