

Covered Person	Definition
Manufacturer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A contractor or subcontractor of a manufacturer; • A supplier or licensor of any product, intellectual property, service, research tool, or component or other article used in the design, development, clinical testing, investigation, or manufacturing of a covered countermeasure; and • Any or all of the parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, and assigns of a manufacturer.
Distributor	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A person or entity engaged in the distribution of drugs, biologics or devices. • Examples include: manufacturers; repackers; common carriers; contract carriers; air carriers; own-label distributors; private-label distributors; jobbers; brokers; warehouses, and wholesale drug warehouses; independent wholesale drug traders; and retail pharmacies.
Program Planner	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A State or local government, including an Indian tribe, a person employed by the State or local government, or other person who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supervised or administered a program with respect to the administration, dispensing, distribution, provision, or use of a security countermeasure or a qualified pandemic or epidemic product, • Including a person who has established requirements, provided policy guidance, or supplied technical or scientific advice or assistance or provides a facility to administer or use a covered countermeasure. • A private sector employer or community group or other "person" when carrying out the above described activities.
Qualified Person	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A licensed health professional or other individual who is authorized to prescribe, administer, or dispense countermeasures under the law of the State in which the countermeasure was prescribed, administered, or dispensed; or • Any person authorized in accordance with the public health and medical emergency response of the "Authority Having Jurisdiction" to prescribe, administer, deliver, distribute or dispense the countermeasures, and their officials, agents, employees, contractors and volunteers. The "Authority Having Jurisdiction," is the public agency with "the legal responsibility and authority" to respond to COVID-19.