

Pete Sorrentino

Evercore

Head of Private Placements Advisory

Pete Sorrentino is the Founder and Head of Evercore's Private Placements Advisory business with responsibility for private equity and alternative debt capital raising for corporate and financial sponsor clients. Pete has twenty years of corporate finance experience advising clients in capital raising and M&A transactions in sectors including TMT, energy, healthcare, industrials, financial institutions, infrastructure, transportation, real estate and consumer / retail. His predominant expertise is in the origination, structuring and execution of direct private equity, PIPEs and credit transactions for acquisition financing, recapitalization, growth capital or shareholder liquidity. Prior to joining Evercore in 2017, Pete spent seven years at Perella Weinberg Partners where he was Head of the Private Capital Advisory business. Prior to Perella Weinberg, Pete was an Executive Director in Barclays' Global Private Capital Group and began his career at Lehman Brothers in 2000.

Since early April, Pete has executed numerous PIPE financings on behalf of both issuer and investor clients including Providence / Outfront Media, Apollo / Expedia, SunOpta / Oaktree, US Foods / KKR, Onex / Emerald Holdings and Paine Schwartz / AgroFresh.